

Northern Territory Ministry

On Tuesday 19 December 2023, Natasha Fyles resigned as Chief Minister of the Northern Territory, with Treasurer Eva Lawler then being elected unopposed to replace Fyles as Chief Minister. A Cabinet reshuffle was then announced on Thursday, with the changes including:

- Eva Lawler adds the Defence Industries, Industry and Trade and Major Projects portfolios to her existing responsibilities, on top of becoming the new Chief Minister
- Chansey Paech becomes Deputy Chief Minister, as well as keeping his existing responsibilities
- Mark Monaghan joins the Ministry to become Minister for Education, Mining, Agribusiness and Fisheries
- Brent Potter takes on the Alcohol Policy portfolio, as well as keeping his existing responsibilities
- Selena Uiibo takes on the Health, and Mental Health and Suicide Prevention portfolios, as well as keeping her existing responsibilities
- Natasha Fyles and former Deputy Chief Minister Nicole Manison leave the Ministry

The next Northern Territory election will be held in August 2024, and the Government will be hoping the reshuffle acts as a refresher, with the latest polling showing they are trailing the Country Liberal Party by a considerable margin.
